Mr. NEELY, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. J. Res. 123]

The Committee on the District of Columbia, having under consideration the original joint resolution (S. J. Res. 123) to authorize the employment of a chief counsel at a salary not to exceed $15,000 per annum, after full consideration, report favorably thereon, without amendment, and recommend that the joint resolution be agreed to by the Senate.

The purpose of this joint resolution is to bring the salary of the chief counsel to the Subcommittee Investigating Crime and Law Enforcement in the District of Columbia up to the level provided for similar tasks. The Senate Committee on Organized Crime in Interstate Commerce was authorized to employ a chief counsel at a rate of $17,500 per annum, and an associate counsel at $12,000 per annum. In the judgment of the full Committee of the District of Columbia, the services now being rendered by the chief counsel warrant the salary provided in the joint resolution.
